

West Chelsea Galleries Warm Up for Spring Season

February 21, 2012 6:24pm | By Mathew Katz, DNAinfo Reporter/Producer

CHELSEA — Spring might not be here yet, but galleries in West Chelsea are gearing up for a round of new exhibitions that will run through March.

Artist Liz Markus is bringing her unique take on watercolor landscapes at The Look of Love, her fourth solo exhibition. The artist uses sweeping outdoor scenes from the New York area and beyond to serve as stand-ins for the drama of romantic relationships.

The new exhibit runs until March 17 at the ZieherSmith Gallery at 516 W. 20th St.